

CONFERENCE ON MATHEMATICS AND ITS APPLICATIONS

29th August to 1st September 2022 at AIMS Ghana, Accra.

Call for Applications

The African Institute for Mathematical Sciences (AIMS) Ghana invites applications from researchers in mathematical sciences to participate in the Conference on Mathematics and its Applications scheduled from 29th August to 1st September 2022 at AIMS Ghana, Accra.

The conference is organized within the framework of the German Research Chair program at AIMS Ghana, under the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation, the German Ministry of Education and Research and the DAAD Foundation.

This conference will provide a platform for researchers in mathematical sciences and its applications to present their work and to network with others in their disciplines. It also aims at increasing the cooperation between students and researchers in mathematics and applications on one hand, and various institutions and research centers on the other hand.
